Two Arrested after Hit-and-Run Accident

Robert E. Garner, 23, of 2115 Delmar avenue, was charged in Madison with carrying a concealed weapon, and a companion, William J. Hayes, 23, 2444 Olive avenue, was named on three charges early Saturday morning. The two men were arrested following an accident in the 300 block of Madison avenue, which an auto driven by Hayes damaged two parked cars.

Madison police received a report at 2 a.m. Saturday that cars owned by Lyle Howell, 2344 Adams avenue, and Gene Pospischil, 22, of 1840 Collinsville avenue, Madison, had been struck by a hit-and-run driver. The scene headed north on Madison avenue.

A short time later the damaged car was spotted in the parking lot of a tavern and Garner, who was the wheel of the car at the time, was arrested as the driver of the hit-and-run car. Hayes, the other driver, was released after he learned that Police Chief Raymond Willard, who was releasing a lead set for Garner, had taken the wheel and for Garner had taken the wheel after the accident.

Hayes was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Police reported Garner was carrying a knife with a five-inch blade. He posted bond for hearing in magistrate's court. Hayes also was released on bond for a later hearing.

Garner also faces circuit court charges as the result of an incident two months ago in a Madison jail cell when he pointed a smuggled gun at two police officers and pulled the trigger four times. The gun failed to fire because of a jammed cartridge.

Await Word On Possible Nameoki Rd. Bid Call

U.S. Bureau of Roads To Decide on Projects In Listing for Feb. 11

Details as to removal of "encroachments" on right-of-way for the Nameoki road improvement project have been forwarded to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads at Springfield. Further decision on a bid call for the project Friday, Feb. 11, will depend on that office.

L. D. Berger, design engineer of the French Village district office of the Illinois State highway division, told the Press-Record that "Granite City has done an excellent job of clearing the encroachments off the right-of-way."

"Everything that could be removed immediately is out of the way, and the only things remaining are a few jobs that require building remodeling."

This notification probably will be received about Feb. 14, Berger said, in a bulletin of all bid calls that is sent to highway district offices after the advertising list is released by the Bureau of Roads.

Leo Konzen, assistant city attorney in charge of right-of-way work for the city in connection with the Nameoki road project, said the last remaining light and sign standards were removed early last week. Demolition of the former post office building is scheduled to start soon.

Commitments on other obstacle removal involving elimination of overhanging canopies, have been obtained, Konzen said.

Granite City officials and highway engineers had anticipated a bid call for the project in early January, but the job was taken off the list on order of C. S. Monnier, chief engineer of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads at Springfield, on grounds that encroachments had not been removed at all of these must be removed before a contract could be let.

Subsequent to the highway engineers and city officials toured the right-of-way and in-stalled a program of immediate removal of the obstacles in order to obtain a bid call scheduled for Feb. 11.

The city will be taking on bids called Feb. 11 will take place March 4.

Tolar Seeks Single Signature Instead of Three on Expenditures

The first open break among veteran trustees of the East Side Levee & Sanitary District succeeded in tabling a resolution that would have authorized rubber stamp signatures on district checks.

The dissenting votes on the issue marked the first disruption of open meetings since the present membership of the levee board was elected in November, 1964.

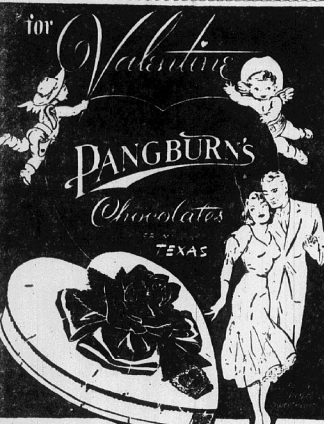

In the past, any differences over administration policies, employment or other matters were sidetracked from the district meetings through discussion in caucus sessions which always preceded the open meeting.

The measure, viewed as lending credence to recent reports in political circles that a split between levee board trustees was developing—with Madison county members, William "Mike" Eberhart, Board President Joseph A. Grant of Granite City on one side, and Board President Lawrence Tolar and member Morris Campbell, both of East St. Louis, on the other. This leaves George Duff, East St. Louis, as the questionable factor in any future determination of the board's political makeup.

Duff, while he has made no comment on the matter, had been reported displeased that he had not given

Says Development Of Overall Area RIDC Objective

There probably would be no such organization as the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Commission "if the St. Louis metropolitan area was not developing more slowly than metropolitan areas in general," according to Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board and president of Granite City Steel Co. and chairman of the board of RIDC. He made the statement at a meeting of Chamber of Commerce representatives of the Alton area Thursday night at Monticello College, Godfrey.

Outlining activities of the Regional Industrial Development Corporation, Veeder pointed out that "the goal of our organization is to produce more work for locally oriented Chambers of Commerce . . . we intend to increase more prospects for interest in development in every major section within the overall St. Louis region and that obviously includes the section which is of direct interest to you (the Alton Chamber of Commerce) group."

Veeder said that "I have met people who have gotten the idea somewhere that the creation of RIDC meant that everyone else was supposed to get out of the industrial development business . . . nothing could be further from the truth . . ."

RIDC was organized, he said, because so many "local groups were competing with one another for a bigger slice of the metropolitan pie instead of working together to increase the size of the pie."

He added that "friends of mine with businesses in Illinois have indicated they think RIDC is dominated by St. Louis business interests. Friends in the city of St. Louis have suggested that RIDC is too much interested in St. Louis county."

He has heard of St. Louis county businessmen who think RIDC is giving too much attention to the Illinois side of the river."

Police Correct Report

An automobile which backed into and damaged a Venice police car at Klein street and Broadway last Tuesday was driven by Gordon Boyett, 36, of 2175 Orville avenue, instead of by Joseph Chandri, 2587 Pontoon road, who originally was listed in police reports as the driver. Assistant police chief John Essington who was driving the police car at the time, said the identity of the driver was entered in the first police report on the basis of a license number checked against listings of license owners. The number proved to be erroneous, he explained. The report was corrected when Boyett later reported the accident.

ATTENTION! UNION MEMBERS! Enough Said

Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act has been debated for 18 years. We think you'll agree that's long enough to talk about this measure, which allows states to enact so-called "right-to-work" laws.

The bill — H. R. 77 — to repeal Section 14(b) was passed by the House of Representatives. Now, it's the Senate's turn.

We believe that the democratic way of settling the issue is by a vote of the Senate. That's how the bill was passed originally in 1947.

There's just one way to settle the issue. The message to the United States Senate on repeal of Section 14(b) is this:

It's time to stop talking and start voting.

Put your plea for a vote on Section 14(b) in writing and send your letters to Senators Paul H. Douglas and Everett M. Dirksen, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Candlelight Setting Saturday For Druessel-Buske Wedding

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and carnations decorated the sanctuary of Hope Lutheran Church for the wedding Saturday evening of Miss Janet Ann Buske, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buske, 101 Paradise lane, and Gary Lee Druessel, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Druessel of Troy.

Rev. Alfred Bula performed the double-ring ceremony at 7:30 o'clock in the glow of candlelight. White ribbon bows marked the pews along the center aisle and Warren Simpkins, vocalist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "Wedding Benediction." The congregation sang the hymn "Lead Thou Me On." Albert Froemling was the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a candlelight gown, the bodice of which was fashioned of English net appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. The A-line skirt was of silk-faced peau de soie. A court train of net appliqued with lace and pearls bordered with peau de soie fell from a fabric rose in the back and a headpiece of lace and pearls secured the bride's veil of silk illusion. Orange blossoms from the wedding bouquet of her paternal grandmother were in the tuxeroven in a cascade arrangement of white carnations, stephanotis and ivy with a corsage center carried by Saturday's bride.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Forrest A. Austin of Norfolk, Va., sister of the bride, and Miss Dottie Druessel, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Thomas Voight, and Mrs. James Lyons, bridesmaids, were dressed alike. Their floor-length gowns had empire bodices of moss green satin with scoop necklines, elbow-length sleeves and A-line skirts of chateau. Headpieces of moss green net and pearls were in their hair and they carried cascade bouquets of chrysanthemums and carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Buske chose a brown silk faille dress with a bodice of Chantilly lace and brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in a two-piece beige silk dress and matching accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Ralph Buske Jr., the bride's brother, was best man; and the corps of groomsmen and ushers included Ronald Kohlmeier of East Alton, James Lyons of Troy, Thomas Voight, Ronald Buske of Jefferson, Mo., Michael Neuhaus of Litchfield, cousins of the bride, William Gunnweg and Cleo Kruckenberg Jr. of Troy.

The candles were lighted by Robert Druessel, a brother of the bridegroom, and Randy Vasel of Litchfield, cousin of the bride.

The wedding reception was held at the Lewis and Clark restaurant, East Alton. Those assisting were Miss Barbara Rankin Technical School, is employed by the Wagner Electric Co. in St. Louis. Mrs. Brooks Holder, organist, accompanied the soloist, Dee Snider, as he sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta. The waist line was accented with hand-clipped Chantilly lace entwined with satin ribbon and the sleeves were elbow-length. A bell shaped court train was attached at the waistline with a fabric bow and a silk organza headpiece with jeweled orange blossoms held in place the bride's bouffant veil. She carried a cascade of white gladioli and roses.

Mrs. Thomas Grimshaw was matron of honor and Miss Lillian Hoover served as bridesmaid. The former wore an empire floor-length gown of olive green crepe with elbow sleeves, a

How Much Does It Cost to Furnish a Home?

A study was made by a national agency last year and it showed that the average family spends 20% of their income for their home furnishings. In other words, AARON FREDMAN the average $20,000 home costs about $4,000 to furnish. This average includes not only furniture but floor coverings, draperies and electrical appliances.

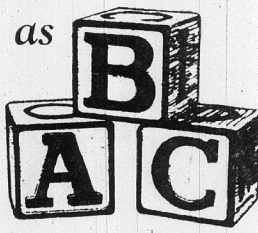

Of course, many families go way beyond this average, and many are obliged to spend a lot less. Actually the amount of money you spend will determine the place of good taste.

We have all seen homes which were furnished for $1,500 and done more attractively and imaginatively than others on which two or three times as much was spent. That's where a reliable furniture dealer who employs good salesmen-decorators can be of great help.

We invite you to come in and take advantage of our free decorator service. We can help you select the furniture that will be both comfortable and attractive in your home whether you are working with a big budget or a small one.

So, remember, when shopping for decorating and sales staff here at Fredman Bros. Furniture Co., Niedringhaus and Delmar Aves., in Granite City, is always ready to serve you. We are open Monday through Friday night until 8:30 p.m., other nights until 8:30 p.m.

Minutemen Get Title Shot; Drop Venice, 68-55

Darkhorse GC Warriors Surprise Flyers; Thrash Edwardsville Tigers

A Southwestern Conference darkhorse has risen from the depths of the seven teams and knocked out the brightly-burning league title hopes of East St. Louis and Edwardsville.

Granite City's Warriors stunned the Flyers on Friday night 62-53, and thrashed the Edwardsville Tigers 74-55 Saturday in two away games for the Ralph Sackett-coached quarter.

On Friday the Warriors all but eliminated East St. Louis from the conference cage race, after falling behind the Flyers 15-8 at the end of the first quarter. Larry Ripka and Jim Hentzel sparked a Warrior drive to give Granite City a 25-24 intermission edge.

The Warriors added another point to their lead as they outscored the Flyers 12-11 in the third period for a 37-35 score.

Hentzel Stars
A wild and wooly fourth quarter followed, and Hentzel was the center of attraction as he sank a basket and connected on seven of seven free throws attempted for nine points.

The six-foot Warrior finished the game with 16 points, while Ripka and Elmer Wortham each netted 14 for the Warriors.

Granite City outscored the Flyers 25-18 in that final period and won their third conference game in nine outings. East St. Louis, without the services of mid-year graduate Odie Carpenter and injured John Loggrosso, committed 28 personal fouls in the evening.

Forry Wells, high-scoring guard for East St. Louis, picked up only five points on one basket and three charity shots.

Battle of Presses
The following night, the constantly-improving Granite City team traveled to Edwardsville and gave the Tigers a 74-55 lesson in effective usage and break-through of the pressing defense.

Despite a full-court press employed by the Tigers, Granite City jumped in front with a 19-11 first-quarter score and improved to 4-2-2 at halftime.

The Warriors had no trouble breaking the Edwardsville press and were effective with their own pressing defense, eliminating easy shots for their foes.

Four Warriors hit double figures in scoring, as Hentzel led the pack for the second night in a row. He netted 18 points on four field goals and 10 free throws, Ripka scored 16 points, Terry Moore 15 and Wortham 12 points.

Empires Bench
With a 61-42 lead at the start of the last period, Sackett cleared his bench and the reserves attained a 13-13 tie with the first-line Tigers.

The game leaves Granite City with a 13-8 overall slate and a 4-6 Southwestern mark. Pre-season guesses were that Granite City, with new coach Sackett, might be a bridesmaid for the title, but not the bride. With the weekend activity, such forecasts appear more accurate today than a few weeks ago.

Fuchs Sets Record
Bill Fuchs established a new Granite City wrestling record for the most pins in a wrestling career at 41 as the Warriors dominated Southwestern 43-5 and Bethalto 33-13 in simultaneous dual meets at Granite City Friday night.

The Warriors split their varsity and junior varsity teams to make two complete teams of 12 wrestlers each and competed against their two opponents at the same time.

The pair of wins stretches the Warriors' dual meet record to 13-0 this season.

Fuchs scored pin No. 41 in his two-year varsity wrestling career, erasing the old mark of 40 set by Buddy Felchlin. The previous record was set in the years 1960-61-62. Last year, Fuchs scored 18 pins and this year he has 23 to his credit. He also holds the record for the most pins in a single season at 23.

Ken Breiweiser of Southwest- ern fell victim to Fuchs in 3-13 in the 95-pound class for his 27th win against no setbacks.

Younger Boys Praised
Although there was some doubt as to the strength of the two Warrior squads before the meet, coach Bill "Red" Schmitt praised the work of the younger boys in their performance.

"I think that some of the younger boys really did an outstanding job. It seems that they were a little more serious about the meets than the older boys," Schmitt said.

Dillon-Essington Scoring Threat Thwarted by BHS

Bunker Hill's Minutemen rose to the occasion and handed the Venice Red Devils a 68-55 MCM Conference defeat here Friday night.

For Venice, it was the second conference loss in 10 games and only the second loss in 20 contests this season. Bunker Hill now holds a 9-1 league mark and a 16-3 overall record, having beaten Venice 76-69 in a previous league game. The Red Devils ousted Bunker Hill 68-62 in winning the conference tournament.

The Minutemen entered the game without the services of star guard Larry Allen, and their pivotman Terry Bails was undered out of the game early in the third period with five fouls. Wes Scroggins and Jerry Mansholt picked up where Bails left off and helped outscore the home court Red Devils 37-33 in the final two quarters.

The 1-2-2 zone press used by Bunker Hill collapsed on Venice's Rich Essington in the midcourt time and the Red Devils' ball-handler was limited in the number of shots and assists for the evening.

Essington had been averaging over 19 points with 35 assists a game, but only netted 15 points and six assists. Percy Collins dominated the boards for Venice during the first half, but got into foul trouble and had to sit out the majority of the third quarter.

Venice Cool Shooting
The usually hot-shooting Red Devils managed to connect on only 36% of their shots, while Bunker Hill hit on 49%.

The Minutemen held a charity stripe shooting advantage, making 22 of 31 while Venice hit only 15 of 38 attempts.

With Dillon and Essington leading the way, Venice had come back to close a 31-22 Bunker Hill halftime lead to 44-33 during the third period. Essington then committed his fourth personal foul and the Venice attack bogged down.

Denny Hill came off the Venice bench to score four baskets in the final period, but Bunker Hill reserve Wes Scroggins and regular Mansholt netted 16 points in the final period to secure the win.

Scroggins' Four Free Throws
Rick Scroggins made four consecutive key free throws in the third to help stall the Venice bid for the lead.

Bunker Hill, with four conference games remaining, takes over the conference lead by virtue of the victory.

"We were just outplayed, that's all," said Venice coach Bill Ohlendorf. "They were doing the same thing they've done in earlier games, only better," he added.

Coach Jim Halika of Bunker Hill attributed his team's success to the fact that most of the boys participate in cross-country during the fall.

"They're in shape, and they like to run, so we don't have to worry about hustle," Halika said.

Coolidge's ninth grade cage team smashed rival Prather 64-44 at Coolidge Thursday and tied with Webster of Collinsville for the Madison County Junior High Conference championship.

Gene Livingston paced the red-hot Braves with nine for nine from the field and 21 points, while Gary Simpson scored 20 points. Coolidge jumped to a 42-23 halftime lead and used a full-court press most of the game.

Coolidge and Webster tied for the league championship with identical 8-2 conference marks.

Coach Skip Hastings' quiet finished the season with a 12-3 overall slate.

Trojan-Warrior Clash at Madison Tomorrow Granite City Team in Golden Gloves Tourney

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Mon., Feb. 7, 1966 Page 7

Teams 'Even' for Inter-City Great Moment in Sports

There are great moments in all sports. Auto racing has the 24-hour Le Mans race, baseball has the World Series and the All-Star game, and football has the Super Bowl. But to Quad-Cityans, nothing can match the annual Madison-Granite City basketball game. This year, the Trojans will play host to the Warriors at Madison tomorrow, at 8 p.m. before an expected capacity crowd of 1400 fans.

The contest involves all the pageantry of the bonus-signing ceremony, the grueling pace of the Le Mans race and the jam-packed crowds of the World Series games.

Last year, before a capacity crowd at Granite City, the Warriors came back to tie the score and the lead changed hands three times during the third period.

Granite City won the game on free throws, making 13 to Madison's 10. The Warriors hit on 29 field goals while Madison made 30.

New GC Edition
But, this year, the Warriors have a new edition of an old book. The reprinted, revised volume is labeled "Basketball Under Ralph Sackett."

In his first year as head basketball coach for Granite City, Sackett has all but assured the Warriors of a winning season. He uplifted what otherwise might have been another so-so basketball season.

But experienced players like Larry Ripka, Elmer Wortham, Terry Moore and Bill O'Neill have made his job just a little easier.

Granite City will have the height advantage in the contest, with Moore standing 6' 4" and Wortham and O'Neill 6' 1" each. The Trojans, meanwhile, will have Paul Lusk, 6' 2"; Steve Geroff, 6' 1", and Dale Turner 6' 0".

Scoring Edge For Madison
Madison, besides having the home court edge, will have a scoring advantage. In 19 games the Trojans have outscored their foes 72.3 to 66 a game. The Warriors meanwhile are a close behind with a 70-point total to opponents' 65 per contest.

The Trojans also will have the leading scorer in this area in Dale Turner, who is averaging 25 points a game. Paul Lusk, who came off the bench against Assumption to score 30 points last week, and brother Gary Lusk will bolster the Trojan scoring punch.

Ripka leads all Warrior scorers with a 16-point-plus average, while Jim Hentzel and a Moore are close behind.

Both Teams Press
Both teams successfully utilize the press defense, Granite City's being a near carbon copy of the famous Vergil Fletcher-Collinsville zone press.

Madison uses more of a man-to-man press, and has been effective against much taller teams this year.

In the free throw department Madison holds the edge, showing a better percentage in completions. Both teams hold a 400-plus mark in shooting from the field.

Speed vs. Good Shot
Overall, Madison's offensive attack rests on the speed of Turner and Ron Burt. Given the chance, the Trojans will fast break for the quick basket, for Granite City, on the other hand, likes to work the ball around for the good shot.

From all outward appearances, the game will be a real cliffhanger, as both teams have nearly identical overall records.

LOCKER ROOM LESSON In preparation for the Madison game is given to Larry Ripka by head coach Ralph Sackett. Ripka leads the Warriors in scoring a 16-plus average.

Formula for Success Given MHS Gridders by Pro Wilson

"Athletics in conjunction with academic achievement, not in opposition to it, is the keynote to a successful career, whether in business or professional sports," was the advice given by Larry Wilson, defensive star of the St. Louis Football Cardinals, to 27 varsity football players on the Madison Trojan 1965 team, during an address Thursday evening.

The occasion marked the annual football banquet sponsored by the Madison Lions Club to honor the high school athletes. More than 90 attended the dinner held at the Sportsmen's Club.

Throughout his 30-minute talk, followed with a question and answer period of similar duration, the six-foot, 190-pound Wilson consistently emphasized the importance of education at the high school and college levels.

He urged the youths to combine their interest in sports with academic effort to achieve the greatest benefits. He also stressed "it's not the size of the individual that counts, but eagerness, willingness and inner fortitude."

Wilson stressed filmed highlights of the Cardinal's 1964 football season, narrating some of the sequences. Notes for key de-

Past History of Warrior-Trojan Cage Meetings

In the last 18 meetings between Madison and Granite City on the basketball court, Madison holds a 13-5 edge in victories and a one-time nine-game winning streak over the Warriors.

During the basketball seasons of 1954-55 through midway in the 1958-59 campaign, Madison's Trojans won nine consecutive inter-city games over the Granite City Warriors.

In the 1954-55 season, Madison eked out 87-83 and 62-55 wins and proceeded to win the next seven ball games. The teams met twice a year up until the 1961-62 season, when they decided to play only once during the regular season.

Granite City broke the Trojans' winning streak in the second game of the 1958-59 season by a 61-48 score. The following year, Bob Price and Rich Williams (who later captained the Bradley Braves to the NIT championship in 1963-64) paced the Warriors to a 70-68 win over the Trojans in the first game that season.

Later in the year, the Williams-Price combination clicked to clobber the Madison quintet, 88-64.

The season of 1960-61 saw the rise of Don Freeman (captain of the University of Illinois) cage squad and destined to break all scoring marks for the Illini.

He helped the Trojans to 71-52 and 70-58 wins over Granite City. In this senior year (1962) Freeman led a powerful Madison scoring punch that kayoed the

The guest speaker was introduced by Glen Pickering, MHS head football coach, who also presented each player individually, along with assistant coaches, Charles Stepoe and Cecil Kemper.

Other guests introduced were Madison School Supt. Wensei Brown; Francis Dent, Madison high school principal; assistant principal, Adam Burnick; and school board members, Dr. Steve Geroff, Frank Derner, Gel Blumensack, William G. Schreiber and Harold Fisk.

Walter Gavlick, Lions' president, reminded members of the club's annual sweetheart dance to be held Friday evening at the Sportsmen's Club. Ronald Czyszczak is chairman. Tickets are still available.

Washington U. Gets Grant For Monks Mound Study

A grant of $5000 has been awarded by the National Science Foundation to Washington University at St. Louis to be used in archaeological work at Cahokia Mounds State Park where drilling tests and excavations will have been underway since early last year.

The university has been conducting the tests and excavations at Monks Mound, the largest ceremonial earthwork constructed by American Indians north of Mexico.

Purpose of the work is to determine the method of construction and the general history of the mound which is the central structure of a group of mounds forming the heart of the Cahokia prehistoric Indian settlement.

The project is under the general supervision of Dr. John Bennett, professor of anthropology. The university is working in cooperation with the Illinois Archaeological survey.

The current grant will be used to continue work on the experimental drilling project at the mound, Dr. Bennett said. This is a new method, tried in Monks Mound for the first time in which cores of earth 11 inches in diameter and two feet long are removed from the rigidity in the carbon of charcoal found in a trench at the mound. There is some evidence, however, that there were Indians in the Cahokia area until about 1500 A.D., and Dr. Bennett and his associates hope to pinpoint the date with future tests.

It is hoped that strategic drillings will give the investigators a profile of the entire mound showing the various floors, construction stages and additions.

Last fall the investigators announced that the mound was probably last occupied around 1180 A.D. This date was arrived at by ascertaining the amount of radiocarbon in the carbon of charcoal found in a trench at the mound.

The cores are taken to a laboratory where they are sketched in the mounds structure. The cores in order to create a profile of then are dissected to obtain cultural materials. This technique is being used because the Construction of Apartment Building Will Begin Soon

Construction is to start as soon as weather permits on the first of 40 apartment buildings containing 160 units on the recently annexed 117-acre tract in Granite City. The site is south of Ponton road and east of Holiday drive.

Announcement of the construction of an eight-family apartment structure was made Friday by Marvin Rose and Bernard Royce of the Rose Royce Realty Co. who are representing Morrissey-Fischer Corp., Godfrey, that will direct the development. The 13-acre tract on which the apartment structures will be placed is signed by the northeast section of the Maryville Gardens area which is being handled by Arthur McFarland & Associates.

Rose and Royce said 40 buildings of contemporary design each containing four apartments, are to be erected at the site, and a half dozen of duplex homes also is to be constructed.

The all-modern apartments will include air-conditioning, gas heat, built-in kitchen appliances and will be one, two and three-bedroom in size. The amount of rent has not been set.

The buildings will be two-story, brick and frame, and the initial city construction permit for the eight-family building has been obtained in the amount of $80,000. The overall development, which will include a swimming pool, cost $1,500,000, is expected to cost $3,000,000 to build.

GC Council Meets Tonight

One-Way Street Revisions To Go on Second Reading

Granite City's proposed one-way street revision ordinance is set for second reading tonight, instead of final passage, according to the agenda mailed to aldermen over the weekend. The council has not met since Jan. 24 when the ordinance went on first reading.

The four-page agenda in addition to the one-way streets changes lists a wide variety of business ranging from another report on Nameoki road progress to a request for hiring an architect to design a building for the police department.

In between are such items as a resolution to seek reduced bus fares for elderly persons, a snow removal report, possible employment of a consulting engineer firm, and consideration of applications for the position of sewage treatment plant superintendent.

An ordinance is to be submitted to prohibit parking too close to the intersection at 20th street and Delmar avenue — scene of numerous accidents because of motorists' views being blocked by parked vehicles.

Presentation will be made of a resolution seeking to allocate $110,000 of the city's motor fuel tax allotment from the state for the annual summer maintenance program for arterial streets.

A recommendation is expected for purchase of an 85-foot aerial ladder truck for the fire department. Four bids were opened last month and have been reviewed

Collide in Venice

Autos driven by Charles S. Cloin of Caseyville and George F. Theis of Belleville were damaged about 7 a.m. Friday in a collision at Klein street and Broadway in Venice. Both cars were headed west on Broadway. Police reported that Cloin's car struck the rear of Theis' auto when Theis stopped in response to a traffic officer's signal.

The bids range from $42,964 to $47,335. Purchase of the truck is to be made from a special fund set up with $54,000 paid to the city by Granite City Steel Co. for the behind-the-mill property where the steel firm's multi-million dollar basic oxygen furnaces are being built.

Few Tickets Remain For Church Dinner

A limited number of tickets remain for the mother-daughter buffet dinner to be held Tuesday, Feb. 15, at St. John United Church of Christ. Deadline for reservations is today, however, those still wishing to obtain tickets may call Mrs. Lydia Wilkerson, TR 6-6378, or Mrs. Margaret Tolan, TR 6-7055.

Special entertainment is being planned for the annual affair, which this year will feature a "hearts and flowers" theme, ment and Undersecretaries of the Treasury Joseph W. Barr and Frederick W. Deming. In letters to both Karandjeff and Brink, Neal stressed the strategic importance of the Savings Bonds program and pointed out there are more reasons today than there have been in many years for urging Americans to participate in the bond sales program.

Look at the shape of the picture. Most color sets have a round picture tube. This tube has been around for years. But, many experts say that in a few years most all color sets will be built with rectangular picture tubes. Motorola introduced this newer kind of tube — was first in America to mass-market Rectangular Color TV. How can you tell the difference? Just look. See if the picture is big, full, rectangular... about like on your modern black and white TV. If you're looking at a round-tube Color TV the picture is smaller... and it's cut off at the corners.

Look at the size of the cabinet. If the cabinet is big, bulky and sticks out 5 or 6 inches from the wall... then you're probably looking at a round-tube Color TV. Motorola Rectangular Color TV fits close to the wall. And, because our rectangular tube is up to 5.2 inches shorter than a round tube, cabinets can be slim, graceful, elegant. You can choose from over twenty-five designs, some styled by Drexel — a Motorola exclusive in the home entertainment field.

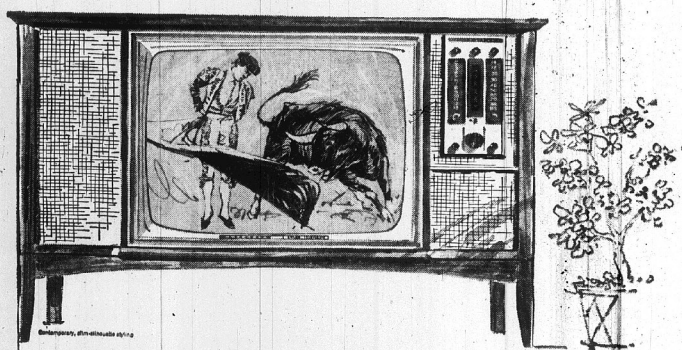

Look for experience. Among all the leading manufacturers of Color TV, only Motorola has so much experience with Rectangular Color TV. This means that for quality, reliability and fresh features you should be sure to examine Motorola Color TV. Every Color TV we build today has a rectangular picture tube, a slim cabinet, a color indicator light, a demagnetizer, a power transformer, and a tint control. Some have push-button UHF for easy tuning on UHF. And every Motorola Color TV is guaranteed for one full year. So why settle for ordinary round-tube Color TV? See the new generation of Color TV. The Rectangulares — with the big pictures, the slim cabinets, the fresh features. They're from Motorola... the people to see for Color TV. Motorola's full-year guarantee covers free exchange or repair of any component proven defective in normal use. Arranged through selling dealers. Labor extra.

Levee Trustees Approve Budget Of $2,116,656

The East Side Levee & Sanitary district board of trustees approved a 1966 budget and appropriation bill Friday, providing $1,012,305 for operating expenses this year, and another $1,104,350 for payment of bond principal and interest. An official publication of the budget appears elsewhere in this issue.

Approval of the appropriation measure was voted in a public hearing attended by four of the board's five trustees and about ten other persons, all but one of whom were levee district representatives or employees. Trustee George Duff of East St. Louis was absent.

The total appropriation of $2,116,656 totals $20,004 more than the 1965 figure of $2,096,652. The 1965 budget included operating costs of $990,000 and $1,106,652 for bonds and interest.

The $1,104,350 for bond payments includes payments from 24 different bond accounts, of which estimated funds available for the year will amount to $2,092,181. Thus the bond account is expected to have a year-end balance of $964,874 which can be applied to bond and interest payments during the 1967 year.

On the basis of detailed figures included in the budget figures approved Friday, anticipated expenditures for operating costs during 1966 will exceed by $7515 the amount of funds expected to be available during the year.

Cost Breakdown
A breakdown of operating costs show that while a budget of $367,700 is set for project costs for the year, estimated available funds are expected to total $338,683 for that purpose. This means a deficit of $29,016.

Anticipated expenditure of $108,300 is budgeted for administrative purposes, while available funds for that purpose are expected to total $96,012. This is another deficit of $12,287.

Estimated available funds for the engineering department are expected to total $122,960, while anticipated expenditures included in the budget amount to $52,550, leaving a balance of $69,410. Estimated available funds for the maintenance department amount to $297,263, with budgeted expenditures at $280,900, leaving a balance of $38,363. The police department budget

Laud Simon for Calling Attention to Corruption

Sen. Paul Simon of Troy is cited as an example of courage in state government in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post, in an article on "The Crisis in State Government."

The lengthy article, which the Post says was "one year in the making," singles out Illinois as an example of some of the worst abuses in state government.

The article is divided into nine parts; one portion—titled "One Notorious Example"—is devoted to Illinois. This section begins with these words: "In no state do so many of the body stores afflicting state government foster quite so appallingly as they do in Illinois."

Simon is mentioned in the article as "the man who first pointed a finger at corruption" on the Springfield legislative scene.

Appropriate Snow Setting For Scout Klondike Derby

The heavy snowfall and cold weather made ideal conditions for the second running of the Klondike derby in the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, Saturday. Scouts totaling 420 in 66 patrols took part in an afternoon of outdoor scouting at the Cahokia Mound State Park.

The Klondike Derby, popular as a winter activity in councils north of here, is an activity based on a trip in the Klondike country of Alaska. Patrols of scouts built sleds similar to the dog sled of the northland and used them in carrying equipment needed for the many contests which were part of the event.

Five scouting skills were emphasized: first-aid; compass and map; basic knot skills; fire-building and cooking; and semaphore signaling.

Patrols were given maps and instructions at "Junction," the headquarters area. On signal, they raced to five different Alaskan cities shown on their maps. At the finish of the event, all patrols reported to the claims office at the North Pole to have their gold nuggets counted and their final scores determined.

Sleds built by the scouts with the assistance of adult leaders were judged on the basis of durability, originality and attractiveness. Top winners in the sled judging received special awards, and all patrols that participated received ribbons based on their proficiency.

A Proficiency
Patrols earning "A" ratings were as follows:

Patrol Sled Judging
Top patrol in the patrol sled judging were the Beavers of Troop 12, best sled in the Klondike; the Time Travelers of Troop 88, next best sled; and the Panthers of Troop 15, third.

Assisting the volunteer scouts who served as judges were Explorers from Post Six of Granite City, with Don Beck as advisor; Post 12 of Granite City, with John Marras as advisor; Post 22 of Granite City, with Charles Miles as advisor; Post 94 of Granite City, with Henry Hellich as advisor; Post 96 of Granite City, with Ray Gaudette as advisor; and Post 27 of Edwardsville and Post 49 of Highland.

MORE ABOUT Local Trustees

would "help expedite" the signing of checks.
"That's the trouble," Ebersold replied. "I think things have been expedited enough now."

Duff Absent

On a vote, Ebersold and Grant voted against the proposal and it was tabled. Duff was absent from the meeting, which had been adjourned from the regular January meeting for the stated purpose of approving the 1966 budget and appropriation. No reason was given for Duff's absence, but this left only Tolar and Campbell in favor of the resolution.

Ebersold and Grant, within the past few months, have become more outspoken on administration and project matters.

A month ago Ebersold told the leave board that he does not believe the district can hold to its promised sewer rental charges in the Madison and Venice area because of the withdrawal of a number of municipalities or agencies that originally announced intentions to participate in the leave board sewer treatment program.

More than $1,500,000 in bonds with which to finance construction of the Lansdowne sewerage treatment plant and connecting lines to Venice and Madison already have been sold, and levee officials said several weeks ago that a supplementary sale, probably in the amount of $300,000, will have to be made this year.

Collinsville Unwilling

Ebersold has said the sewage program was sold to the people of Venice and Madison on the contention that the rate will be about $1.15 and not more than $1.25 per month. Since then, however, Collinsville has indicated unwillingness to participate, although it has signed a contract. National City and Swift & Co. are building their own sewage disposal units.

Spargue, however, told the Press-Record that these withdrawal will not affect the rental rates, which he said will remain unchanged.

Ebersold said he does not know what can be done about it.

Three Autos Damaged

Skidding on ice, the front of the auto of Mike Farrell, 2516 Nameoki road, hit the rear of the car of Marie Lyster, Rural Route 2, while she was waiting at the 27th street and Madison avenue stoplight at 1:35 p.m. Saturday. Whither America? The Hour is Late

(Deseret News, Salt Lake City)
Next to his family, his job, and his religion, one of the biggest influences in the life of the average American is that of government. Whether we are awake or asleep, government touches just about everything we do.

The food we eat is regulated by pure food and drug laws. The air we breathe is subject to antipollution control laws. The clothes we wear are taxed. The place where we work is governed by minimum wage, social security, and workmen's compensation laws. The mattress we sleep on bears a tag attesting that its manufacture was subject to government regulations.

More People, More Laws
As the population increases, the role the government plays in our lives is bound to increase. More people need more government workers to serve them. As people live in closer proximity to each other, the danger of a man's infringing on his neighbor's rights increases; hence, laws.

The trouble is that government also can infringe on our rights, that it can grow faster than conditions warrant, and that in solving some problems its solutions create even worse problems. For example: From 1964 to 1964 the U. S. population increased 18%—but the number of Americans who relied increased 42%.

Centralized Control
During the past decade federal aid payments to state and local governments have more than tripled. With federal aid, of course, goes federal control. The tax burden has grown to the point where the average citizen must work more than three months of each year to support the government before beginning to see money to spend as he wishes.

One of every five dollars spent in the U. S. and one of every eight jobs comes from the federal government, making it the single largest source for our income. The rise and fall of a nation has been traced by one scholar from the following steps: From bondage to spiritual freedom; from spiritual freedom to a little time left; from a little time left to no time left.

We have precious little time in which to replot our course. For when government starts stunting the growth of the human spirit, it is instead of fostering qualities like initiative and self-reliance, the time may not be far off when challenges start mastering us, instead of the other way around.

It is now against the law to kill rabbits. The closed season for rabbits went into effect on Feb. 1. It is a violation to kill them from now until Aug. 1. In order that better "look in" upon the numerous factories and plants that are negotiating with the labor union, it is a violation to have a public committee of three. The members are J. C. Reintjes, J. C. McGraw and C. N. Alieger.

Miss Fayth Cossley left for Palmira, Ill., where she will visit her mother. A public eulogy, luncheon and burial will be held at the Reintjes home, 404 E. W. Harrison, on Monday, Feb. 14, at 2 p.m. The funeral will be held at the Reintjes home, 404 E. W. Harrison, on Monday, Feb. 14, at 2 p.m.

Prof. W. F. Coolidge presented prizes for the best English note in the high school. Miss Lett, this being the first meeting for about 12 years. The fifth annual ball of the Tri-City Central Trades Council will be held at Assembly Hall next Saturday, Feb. 12.

A handsome new mission piano has been placed in the church. It was a donation from the Gerts and was purchased by the Tri-City Central Trades Council. A drove of hogs from the plant of the American Serum Co. near Granite City is the cause of a damage suit being taken from the jury by Judge Brouncker's decision of the circuit court.

Henry Hawkes, a farmer living near the serum plant, is the complaining witness. He said that some of 500 hogs wandered onto his farm and destroyed portions of his crops. The Tri-Union of the Madison County Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Harvey, and the major lesson on "What the Homecoming Soldier Should Consider" was given by Mrs. A. L. Harvey. The ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. A. G. Bunte, Mrs. Heely and Mrs. Fred Waggoner.

The Progressive class of the Baptist Church of Madison met with Mrs. Gladys Fisk, 1730 fourth street. There were three guests, Mrs. Gay, Mrs. L. E. Reiter and Mrs. McIntyre. Members of the class in attendance were: Mrs. Adolph Natter, Mrs. Clarence Dennis, Mrs. Tan Williams, Mrs. Glen McClanahan, Mrs. Wm. Hannabrick, Mrs. Alfred Dunn, Mrs. Ethel Sadtz and Mrs. D. M. Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heely of Cleveland, Ind., entertained six couples for a dinner at their home. The ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. A. G. Bunte, Mrs. Heely and Mrs. Fred Waggoner. The gentlemen holding high scores were George Slay, Joe Libbert and E. H. Schmidman.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. F. King, with their daughter, Miss Virginia, and son, Warren, and the Milliken family reunion at the St. Clair County Hotel. The three circles of the Third Baptist Church held all-day meetings. The first group was entertained by Mrs. Ted Graham on Delmar avenue, the second by Mrs. Cora Compton of Iowa street and Circle Three by Mrs. Owen Garrard on Hodges avenue.

GC Aldermen at Madison Meeting?

To the Editor:
I pose an interesting question: Who are the Granite City aldermen who frequently attend the Madison political machine's meetings?

This is interesting, inasmuch as the political bosses in Madison county tried to buy control of Granite City in the last may election. They lost, so now they resort to "divide and conquer" tactics.

By controlling part of the city council, they hope to control the vote in the June primaries. The good people of Granite City, East Side, West Side and all around the town, will not be misled, but will vote in June to rid our county and state of political parasites.

Aldermen who have sold their souls to the Madison machine will be found out. We need only watch the actions of certain council members to learn who they are.

So, to these aldermen, forget about your own personal interests and get our city moving again. We have a good mayor; let's get behind him and move forward to a better tomorrow.

GRANITE CITY

CONCERNED OVER VIEWS OF 'CONCERNED CITIZEN'

To the Editor:
I'm concerned about Mr. Concerned.

In The Forum Jan. 27, "Concerned Citizen" asked some questions that should be answered. First, foremen have an obligation to the company and the community to them. It is what "Concerned" and certain others have forgotten about, called loyalty.

Second, money is not the foremost reason foremen stay on a job. Mostly, it's the determination not to be intimidated. Something else might shatter: Forgive violence breeds unity.

Third, what price on a laughing face? Ten cents is obviously the price right shooters put on it; that is the price of a bullet. What is "Concerned" concerned about? A strike? A union not being beaten? The safety of women and children—no matter who they belong to—Mr. Concerned should be concerned about the safety of anyone who would shoot through a window without knowing or caring who or what is behind it.

Total disregard for the rights of others happened here in our town. America is made up of people who will not be intimidated. Foremen are Americans also and will not be intimidated.

Does Mr. Concerned think that people who do not believe as he does should be shot? If so, more people than foremen had better be wary of him.

A CONCERNED FOREMAN

MANY AIDED DIMES FUND

To the Editor:
Many people unselfishly devoted their spare time to help make the 1966 Granite City March of Dimes drive a success. Area captains in particular had to lead their duty was to secure people to cover each block.

The people at Anchorage home, though retired and living on a fixed income, gave as generously as any area in Granite City.

Negative Answer To Negative Tax Unless Its Drawbacks Are Avoided

A "negative" income tax, guaranteeing a minimum annual income was one of the most thought-provoking of the dozens of recommendations submitted to President Johnson and Congress late last week by the National Commission on Technology, Automation and Economic Progress.

Snap judgments should be avoided on this proposal and the other recommendations because most of them have both good and bad aspects which need to be carefully weighed. But one point that should be included in the study from the start is this: When originally conceived, the negative tax plan was to replace the numerous overlapping and confusing aid programs presently in effect, rather than merely serving as an additional initiative-stimulating welfare program.

Surely, compensating for the individual and desire to make freedom meaningful to all can be served without destroying basic American concepts. Guaranteed income may be a solution but it involves so many obvious drawbacks that only the most intelligent group rules would be acceptable.

It was Karl Marx who said, "From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs." The latest view we have is that Marxism has not been accepted as our national policy.

Opportunity For Public To Establish Religious Center At Local University

Individuals, organizations and firms interested in helping establish an all-faith religious center in the heart of the SIU-SW campus have the opportunity to accomplish this by contributing to the three-year fund campaign launched last month.

Denominations already enrolled as members of the University Religious Council are the American Baptist, Southern Baptist, Disciples, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic and United Church of Christ (Congregational and Evangelical & Reformed). Others in correspondence with the religious center committee are the Eastern Orthodox, Assemblies of God, Christian Science and Jewish faiths.

Enabling ministers to be grouped economically and conveniently in a single building rather than being scattered all over the campus, the center will provide a small meditation chapel but is not intended primarily as a place of public worship. Instead, it will emphasize counseling services to bolster students' spiritual, social and moral values.

Because of the religious nature of the center, Southern Illinois University will be unable to provide funds, other than to make available the site of the 21,000-square-foot structure. This leaves the task up to the participating denominations and to the public, in the Quad-Cities and a 20-county area.

The condition a man is in can best be judged from what he takes two of at a time—stairs or pills.

Breaking the Isolation Barrier

(Reprinted from Transaction, B was offered grape juice. At the end of three weeks, the beverage showed similar results. How do you break the shell of isolation that separates aged patients in geriatric wards from the world of human contacts?

How do you make an old man unable to break into the world of nursing care to just keep alive, whose old friends are mostly dead—believe he is still a responsible adult with much to offer and receive from human friendship?

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

Actions of Everyone Affect Others

By Rev. G. Lewis Kulawski, Pastor of the First Church of God
"What shall I do to inherit eternal life?" "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and thy neighbor as thyself."

And who is my neighbor? When you read the account of the good Samaritan in the tenth chapter of Luke, you see clearly that everyone whose life touches yours is your neighbor. Everyone.

Swearing, Drinking, Smoking
One of my school teachers used to say that swearing is an admission that we have run out of anything logical to say. It is proof that we have reached the end of our thinking.

Smoking is an acknowledgment that we have more nervous energy within us than we know how to use in constructive endeavors.

Any time we partake of anything that our modern inventive methods have proven to be definitely harmful to our body, we are having a negative effect on the lives of others. We are showing lack of common sense, and the consequences affect the lives of all our neighbors.

Condemns Intimidation

In the same vein, to try to intimidate those who do not think as we do by shouting our views through windows is simply to admit that we have nothing constructive to add to the situation. To think that we can force people to see our point of view by intimidation is as illogical as it is stupid.

No one ever had stronger convictions than Jesus Christ. In his day, social evils were rampant, as in ours. The Romans used force to accomplish their goals, as many attempt to do today. The religious leaders did nothing at all, except in their

GC Students Named To SIU Deans' Lists

Six Granite City students have been named to the deans' lists for scholastic excellence during the fall quarter at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Thomas and Edwin W. Murphy Jr., 2412 Lincoln avenue, made straight A's.

The others are Christy M. Johnson, 2254 Cleveland Blvd.; David W. Thompson, 4170 Breckinridge; and Glen W. Zinkow, 2828 Wayne avenue.

4 College Students Express Views on National Issues

A panel of four local college students, featured at the Granite City Optimist Club's luncheon meeting Thursday, presented opinions on two current, highly-controversial issues — the resumption of bombing in Vietnam, and a program, recently proposed to President Johnson, whereby minimum family incomes of $3000 per year would be subsidized with federal assistance or federally-created jobs.

On the panel were Steve Stamps, a freshman at the University of Illinois, who is majoring in aeronautical engineering through participation in a McDonnell Aircraft Corp. student program; Miss Cathy Cox, a student at Alton Memorial Hospital's School of Nursing, who is training in a course jointly sponsored by the hospital and Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus; Gene Sternberg Jr., a University of Illinois freshman, majoring in civil engineering; and Miss Judy Matras, a food sciences major, who is spending her last year at the University of Illinois.

Although not necessarily agreeing with the United States' over-involvement in Vietnam, the panel did concede that bombing attacks should be resumed "as long as we were there." The students were opposed to the minimum annual income proposal, if it proved to be a "give-away program." They cautioned such schemes, in their opinion, "could destroy the incentive of the working individual."

Will Tribes was panel moderator, and Herman Mueller was program chairman. The brief business session was conducted by Optimist president, Edward R. Stone, who welcomed the 30 members and six guests attending.

A special guest was Optimist Lt. Gov. Gene Barnett of Alton, who presented the local service club with the District Governor's Award Banner for outstanding club achievements within the past three months.

The Granite City group, which tied for the honor with Belleville and Alton Optimist clubs, was cited for superior effort in all phases of club activities, including contribution to youth.

FLAG PRESENTATION by the VFW Auxiliary

Favorable Ruling On Road Tax Hike

Illinois county boards, Atty. General William G. Clark has advised State's Atty. Max B. Stewart of Hancock county, may increase the maximum rate of their tax for county highway purposes by not more than two cents by resolution and without a referendum.

In another opinion just announced, Clark has ruled that a county board members are entitled to receive 10 cents per mile for mileage necessarily traveled in going to and from the county seat or the place where a committee meeting is held.

Such board members, Clark's opinion said, are not entitled to any further allowance for expenses incurred in travel within the county. The mileage allowance "can be properly paid with regard to the actual expense incurred."

Venice Men Enlist In U.S. Air Force

Patrick Ray Austin, 19, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Austin, 200 Broadway, and Donald Ray Agers, 19, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Agers, 1232 Oriole street, both of Venice, have enlisted in the Air Force and left this week for basic training at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas.

Austin made his highest score in the electronic aptitude test, and Agers scored highest in the mechanical test. Both are graduates of the Venice high school in the May 1965 class. Agers was recently married to Sandra Wideman of Granite City.

"A humidifier? Who needs it?"

Everyone—and everything—in your home benefits from an automatic humidifier during the heating season. Because the colder it is outdoors, the harder your heating system works... and the drier the air in your home becomes.

You know the air is excessively dry when your nose feels itchy, stuffy, sneezy. When your complexion and hair get that dried-out look. When furniture joints loosen... or there's a rash of plaster cracks.

Who needs an automatic humidifier? Everyone, everything. Try one for five days—free, with our compliments. Just ask at your Illinois Power office.

FREE HOME TRIAL

Try a Toastmaster Humidifier in your home free for five days. Includes re-heat element for warm moist air. Furniture styled for any room in your home. Purchase it on easy terms if you're convinced of its value. No obligation.

WINTER WOES by Purson

Oh, and were the woes of Salaman Blue,
On a trip, with a cold, he was getting the flu,
And although he was freezin',
He got home in good season,
His tire chains pulled him right through.
PREVENT THOSE WINTER DRIVING WOES
The Safe Winter Driving League presents this tip for safe winter driving from the National Safety Council: "For severe snow and ice conditions, learn how to use tire chains. Practice four to five times at regular intervals on regular tires without chains." January Accidents Drop But Injuries Up by 25

The number of accidents occurring in the Quad-City area during January—a total of 203—was 27 less than occurred in the same months of 1965, but the 114 injury cases resulting from those accidents was an increase of 25 over the January 1965, tabulation, according to a compilation of area-wide traffic accident statistics.
January accidents also resulted in two fatalities, while more than occurred in January a year ago, reports show. Both fatal accidents, oddly enough, occurred during the same week-end with a 38-hour period.
The total number of January accidents was 44 less than the 247 reported in December, while the number of injuries in January dropped 34 below the December figure. There was only one fatality in December, however, compared to the two last month.
Twenty-two of the accidents, involving 14 injury cases, were reported on the last day of the month.
Largest number of accidents for any single three-day period during the first six days of the month. These included 13 accidents with five injured and 21 accidents with five injured on Jan. 4, 5 and 6.
